G.S.R. 719.—In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (xiv) of sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Wealth Tax Act, 1957 (27 of 1957), the Central Government hereby makes the following Rules subject to which the Central Board of Revenue may recognise certain jewellery of Rulers as their heirloom for purposes of exemption from Wealth-tax under the said clause, namely:

1. Short title.—These Rules may be called the Wealth-tax (Exemption of Heirloom Jewellery of Rulers) Rules, 1958.

2. Application for recognition of jewellery as heirloom.—A Ruler desiring to obtain recognition of any jewellery in his possession, not being his personal property, as his heirloom for the purposes of clause (xiv) of sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Wealth-tax Act, 1957, shall make an application to the Central Board of Revenue in the form annexed hereto.

3. Conditions of recognition.—On the receipt of an application under rule 2 of the Central Board of Revenue may recognise any such jewellery as is specified in the application as the heirloom of a Ruler subject to the conditions that the following declarations are made by the Ruler in the application, namely:—

(b) that the jewellery is, to all intents and purposes, treated by the Ruler as his dynastic property to be used by him or his successor in status, on ceremonial occasions or otherwise to be retained in his family;

(c) that the jewellery shall be permanently kept in India and shall not be removed outside India except for a purpose and a period approved by the Central Board of Revenue;

In the event of sale of such jewellery, intimation of the sale and the sale price shall be given to the Central Board of Revenue by the Ruler concerned within a month of the sale.

5. Withdrawal of recognition.—(1) If subsequent to the date of recognition it transpires that any declaration made in the application has been falsely made or is not being duly fulfilled, Central Board of Revenue may for reasons to be recorded in writing withdraw the recognition retrospectively with effect from the date when the recognition first became available to the Ruler and in such a case Wealth-tax shall become payable by the Ruler or his successor, as the case may be, for all the assessment years for which the jewellery was exempted on account of the recognition:

Provided that the aggregate amount of the Wealth-tax payable in respect of the jewellery for all the said assessment years shall not in any case exceed 50% of its market value on the valuation date relevant for the assessment year in which the recognition was withdrawn.

(2) In the event of sale or disposal of the article subsequent to the date of recognition, the Central Board of Revenue shall withdraw the recognition, retrospectively with effect from the date when the recognition first became available to the Ruler and in such a case Wealth-tax shall become payable by the Ruler or his successor, as the case may be, for all the assessment years for which the jewellery was exempted on account of the recognition, and for this purpose, the proceeds from the sale or disposal of the jewellery or the price which in the opinion of the Wealth-tax Officer it would fetch if sold in the open market on the date of sale or disposal, whichever is higher, shall be taken to be the market value thereof on each successive valuation date relevant for the assessment years aforesaid:

Provided that the aggregate amount of the wealth-tax payable in respect of the jewellery for all the said assessment years shall not in any case exceed 50% of its market value as determined under this sub-rule.
